1. Statement of Intent:

Southam College has and will maintain a zero tolerance approach to Bullying.

Southam College operates a 'No Put Down Zone' philosophy creating an ethos where everyone should feel safe from criticism. Effort and progress should be celebrated and staff vigilant on negativity (e.g. Swot, Geek, Boffin). Mistakes are part of the learning process and students should never be ridiculed in our supportive learning environment.

We also operate a 'No hands on' policy so that students do not physically engage with one another in anyway, rather they learn to talk and communicate as young adults.

2. Aim:

The aim of the anti-bullying policy is to ensure that students learn in a supportive, caring and safe environment without fear of being bullied, and that staff are free from fear of bullying by students. Bullying is anti-social behaviour and affects everyone; it is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Only when all issues of bullying are addressed will students be able to fully benefit from the opportunities available at school

3. Objectives:

- Make sure that all students and adults mean the same thing when they are talking about bullying
- Help students to understand how bullying feels for the person being bullied and create a supportive climate where bullying is not tolerated
- Make sure that all students feel able to tell an adult when they know that bullying is going on
- Make sure that students know exactly what they need to do if they are being bullied, and to feel confident that something will be done to stop it.
- Help students enjoy, celebrate and respect the ways in which we are all different and to feel good about themselves

4. Definition of Bullying:

This school has chosen to adopt Warwickshire Anti-bullying Partnership's definition:

“When a person's or group of people's behaviour, over a period of time, leaves someone feeling one or more of the following:

- Physically and/or mentally hurt or worried
- Unsafe and/or frightened
- Unable to do well and achieve
- 'Badly different', alone, unimportant and/or unvalued
- Unable to see a happy and exciting future.”

It could be bullying. When a person, or group of people, has been made aware of the effects of their behaviour on another person, and they continue to behave in the same manner, this is bullying. If someone is made to feel like this, or if they think someone they know feels like this, it should be investigated. This should happen straight away as it can take a long time to build up the courage to tell. However, lots of things can make people feel bad, sometimes it depends on the situation we are in, and it is not always bullying – so we think the following definition, adapted from one written by the Anti-bullying Alliance, is also useful:

Bullying is any behaviour by an individual or group that:

- is meant to hurt – the person or people doing the bullying know what they are doing and mean to do it
- happens more than once – there will be a pattern of behaviour, not just a ‘one-off’ incident
- involves an imbalance of power – the person being bullied will usually find it very hard to defend themselves

It can be:

- Physical, e.g. kicking, hitting, taking and damaging belongings
- Verbal, e.g. name calling, taunting, threats, offensive remarks
- Relational, e.g. spreading nasty stories, gossiping, excluding from social groups
- Racial e.g. using colour or religious differences
- Being derogatory about someone’s sexuality or the LGBTQ+ community.
- Cyber, e.g. texts, e-mails, picture/video clip bullying, Instant Messaging (IM)

5. Identifying and reporting concerns about bullying

All concerns about bullying will be taken seriously and investigated thoroughly. Students who are being bullied may not report it. However, there may be changes in their behaviour, such as becoming shy and nervous, feigning illness, taking unusual absences or clinging to adults. There may be evidence of changes in work patterns, lacking concentration or truanting from school. School teaching and support staff will be alert to the signs of bullying and act promptly and firmly against it in accordance with this policy.

Students who are bullying others also need support to help them understand and change their behaviour.

Students who are aware of bullying (‘bystanders’) can be a powerful force in helping to address it and will be encouraged to do so in a safe way. Assemblies, lessons, posters, and Anti-Bullying Week activities will focus on the responsibility of bystanders to report bullying and certainly not act as ‘reinforcers’.

Why witnesses don’t tell:

1. They worry that they will become targets themselves
2. It is not cool to be seen as a tell tale
3. It is hard to go against a crowd

All students will be encouraged to report bullying by:

- Reassurance that their report will be kept confidential
- Highlighting the dangers of bullying

Reporting methods:

- Talking to a member of staff of their choice (particularly Tutor, Head of Year, Refocus Team and Pastoral Assistant Headteacher or the Head of the pastoral system.
- Completing a blue incident account form and handing this in to the student office
- Completing an online ‘Here to Help’ form available on all the Year Blogs.
- Contacting local and national support agencies for advice/support

6. Responding to reports about bullying

School

The school will take the following steps when dealing with concerns about bullying:

- If bullying is suspected or reported, it will be dealt with immediately by the member of staff who has been made aware
- A clear account of the concern will be recorded and given to the Head of Year
- The Head of Year will interview everyone involved and keep a detailed record and enter the incident on the Bullying Spreadsheet
- Form tutors will be kept informed and if it persists the form tutor will advise the appropriate subject teachers
- As this is such an emotive and dangerous subject, parents and other relevant adults will be kept informed. All communication with home should be recorded.
- Where bullying occurs outside school, any other relevant schools or agencies (e.g. youth clubs, transport providers, PCSOs) will be informed about the concerns and any actions taken where appropriate, or parents will be given advice about who they can contact.
- Punitive measures will be used as appropriate

Students

Students who have been bullied will be supported by:

- offering an opportunity to discuss the experience with a member of staff of their choice as soon as they are available
- providing reassurance that the bullying will be addressed and in a manner that will not exacerbate the problems they are experiencing
- Restorative justice meetings should only take place if the student feels sufficiently confident to meet in the same room as the bully/bullies
- offering continuous support
- providing them with a notebook to record any future incidents and check with them regularly
- restoring self-esteem and confidence
- developing anti bullying techniques
 - employing the use of specialist interventions and/or referrals to other agencies where appropriate (Counselling)

Students who have bullied will be helped by:

- discussing what happened
- discovering why they became involved
- establishing the wrong doing and the need to change
- looking at the dangers/consequences of bullying
- informing parents to help change the attitude of the student
- the use of specialist interventions and/or referrals to other agencies where appropriate

The following disciplinary steps can be taken:

- official warnings to cease offending
- detention
- exclusion from certain areas of school premises
- loss of social time
- Internal exclusion
- minor fixed-term exclusion
- major fixed-term exclusion
- permanent exclusion

Parents

- As mentioned earlier, bullying is very emotive and it is therefore vital that parents feel listened to and that action points are carefully recorded and their implementation passed on.
- Most concerns about bullying will be resolved through discussions between home and School, however, where a parent feels their concerns have not been resolved, they are encouraged to use the Formal Complaints Procedure.
- Where a student is involved in bullying others outside school, e.g. in the street or through the use of the internet at home, parents will be asked to work with the school in addressing their child's behaviour, for example restricting/monitoring their use of the internet or mobile phone.
- Referral of the family to external support agencies will be made where appropriate

7. Preventative measures

The school will:

- Raise awareness of the nature of bullying through inclusion in Life Skills, ICT, tutorial time, assemblies, subject areas and informal discussion, as appropriate, in an attempt to eradicate such behaviour.
- By using the Skills for Success Framework (PLTS/SEAL and SMSC) to promote citizenship.
- By developing a common language of power phrases: "I don't like it please stop" or "I don't know why you are doing this, but I would like it to stop. Please leave me alone now", this is a 'no hands on school'
- Participate in national and local initiatives such as Anti-Bullying Week. Anti-Bullying Week will promote our strong anti-bullying message and the national theme for Anti-Bullying Week.
- Southam College has signed up to the Anti-Bullying Charter.
- Ensure close communication with our primary schools to identify potentially vulnerable students and bullies. Share effective strategies.
- Seek to develop links with the wider community that will support inclusive anti-bullying education
- Conduct parent and student voice activities and act on the information accordingly.
- Ensure that social times are well staffed and that year specific social areas are available.
- Provide 'safe' area for vulnerable students such as the Library, Refocus and the Nurture Room.

8. Bullying Spreadsheet

- Heads of Year will maintain the Bullying Spreadsheets and discuss these each term with their Pastoral Line Manager, to ensure effective measures have been taken for individual cases and to look for patterns emerging within the statistics concerning vulnerable groups or particular types of bullying. The Deputy Head in charge of co-ordinating Anti-Bullying will produce an annual report on Bullying.
